1. Jim Garrison briefed me on a proposal to spend $12,000,000 during the course of the next four years to establish [redacted] [redacted] I did not feel that we were in any position to make such a recommendation and directed that another study of our requirements be made, taking into serious consideration the surplus that we have above known requirements, whether this surplus should be retained, and, if so, whether we want to go into this kind of expenditure to take care of it.

2. General Cabell requests that when we are ready to submit our special insurance plan I arrange to have Larry Houston make the presentation at a Deputies' Meeting.

3. General Cabell has also requested that he and I sit down with Matt Baird when he returns and discuss with him the proposed transfer of certain training facilities [redacted]
